RE: N. Stephan Kinsella: University of London External Programme

Dear Sir/Madam:

I understand that Stephan Kinsella is seeking admission to your prestigious Programme.

I have known Stephan well for over six years, ever since he attended the Paul M. Hebert Law Center from 1988 to 1991. I am very familiar with his proposal and his previous legal writings. In my opinion, his research proposal is a very interesting one perfectly suited for your acceptance for a Ph.D. thesis in Laws in your External Programme. I especially look forward to seeing his development of his theory and application to the field of decentralized means of generating law, as well as other aspects of his thesis such as its application to basic rights theory, as well as its application to international law. Because of the potential significance of his proposed research, I am very glad to be able to encourage him to pursue this course of research and to support him in this endeavor.

For these reasons, I highly recommend that you approve Mr. Kinsella's research proposal and Ph.D. application.

Sincerely yours,

Saúl Litvinoff
Boyd Professor of Law
Oliver P. Stockwell Professor and Director
